

NEWS FOR THE ORU COMMUNITY

RETURN TO NORMAL

"The good old days" are back at ORU. COVID-related restrictions are gone, with just those handy hand sanitizer dispensers left to remind us to keep our hands clean. Watch Dr. Wilson's announcement about this turn of events.

REFER! RECRUIT! SEND!

ORU is on the lookout for the students of tomorrow—today! You can help us connect with them. Use this form to refer a prospective student. If your son or daughter is considering ORU, start the enrollment process here. A good way for students to learn more about ORU is at a Quest Day. The dates are June 18 and 25 and July 16 and 23. (The July 16 event is for First Generation college students.) A full-tuition winner will be selected from each Quest event!

COLLEGE NAME CHANGE

The Board of Trustees has announced that the Anna Vaughn College of Nursing will once again be known as the Anna Vaughn School of Nursing and will reside in the newly created College of Health Sciences.

TECH-SAVVY

ORU lives on the cutting edge of technology. As Mike Mathews, Vice President of Information and Technology, says about pivoting to online ed during the pandemic, "We were Zoom before Zoom became cool." Hear what else Mike has to say about "The Future of Education and Technology" in this INSPIRE podcast.

GIFT BOOK

Supporting ORU is a great thing to do. It makes a Spirit-empowered whole person education possible for thousands of students from around the world. For a limited time, we have a gift for you when you make a gift of $25 or more to any ORU project (including the Whole Leaders for the Whole World campaign). You can receive a book (print or digital version) that was written by our former Dean of the College of Business, Dr. R. Henry Migliore, titled "A Biblical Approach to Life Planning."

EVENTS

HOMECOMING 2021

The dates are set, and we are really looking forward to seeing our alumni and friends face-to-face! Mark your calendar:

November 12-13. Registration will go live soon.

ALUMNI

IRONMAN TULSA

ORU's hometown recently hosted Ironman Tulsa. If you were one of the almost-2,000 athletes who took part (like Trevor Outman '03, '05-M.Mgt.), e-mail us at alumni@oru.edu and tell us about your experience.

PARKING-LOT MINISTRY

Marcus Jackson '99, an ORU Missions graduate, has a different way of reaching the younger generation: through a parking-lot ministry.

'THE WAY I HEARD IT'

Impact Productions, founded by Tom Newman '80, is working with Mike Rowe and Trinity Broadcasting Network on a TV ministries called "The Way I Heard It." The show is based on Rowe's podcast series.

ETC.

- One of ORU's traditions is giving each new graduate a Bible. Do you still have your graduation Bible? Do you use it? Do you value it? Let us know. Write to us at alumni@oru.edu.
- You can support ORU whenever you shop on Amazon. Go to this page to learn how to select ORU as your preferred nonprofit via the AmazonSmile program.
- ORU is going paperless. That means when you make a gift to ORU, your receipt will come via e-mail. You can still choose a paper receipt, though, by filling out this form.

DID YOU KNOW?

ORU has developed an AI-enabled MQ Mirror that serves students "with vital educational information in both an audible and visual manner."
